Weather Quality

Rainfall

It hasn't rained recently, but there's light rain expected (5 mm). Likely passing showers later in the day or evening

Wind

This is a light breeze — you'll feel it on your skin and see leaves move, but it's not strong.

Comfortable for outdoor activities.

Feels like

This is the temperature your body actually experiences, factoring in humidity and wind.

Slightly warm, but not uncomfortable.

Humidity

This is quite humid, meaning the air has a lot of moisture. 25°C dew point is very humid — you may feel sticky or sweaty, especially if active.

UV Index

UV radiation is very low right now (usually low in the morning). Sunscreen is not urgently needed at this level, but conditions can change midday.

Sunrise

About 12 hours of daylight. The sun will start rising before 6 AM and set before 6 PM. Plan outdoor activities before sunset.

With today's partly cloudy weather in Lengkong Kulon, Banten temperatures reaching around 28°C, it's an excellent opportunity to explore both indoor and outdoor activities. QBig and The Breeze in BSD City are an open-concept space and perfect for a leisurely stroll or some retail therapy. AEON Mall in BSD City is great if you prefer an indoor space.

Hello, can you recommend me a male outfit for today's weather?

Today is mostly partly cloudy, where temperatures are likely mild with a mix of sun and breeze, here's a versatile and stylish outfit idea:

Men's Outfit (Casual + Weather-Appropriate):

- Top: Lightweight long-sleeve shirt or a breathable knit sweater (preferably in neutral or earth tones like olive, beige, or navy).
- Bottom: Slim-fit chinos or jeans (avoid super dark colors if it might get warm).
- Outerwear (optional): A light denim or bomber jacket – easy to take off if it gets sunny.
- Shoes: White sneakers or casual loafers.
- Accessories: Sunglasses and a simple watch. Optional: a cap or beanie if it's windy.

Thankyou very much!

Your are very welcome! Let me know if you have any other question about today's weather!

Suggestions:

What are some activities to do for current weather?

Could you explain today's weather condition?

Park Date

12:00 - 15:00

Hey! Just a heads-up — there's 10mm of rain expected on the day of your park date. You might want to bring an umbrella, reschedule, or plan a cozy indoor alternative just in case. Stay dry and enjoy your day!
